

IN VAIN.

Call back the sun which years and years ago
Streamed fair and warm where memory's roses
grow;
Call back the tune which echoed in the air
When life was young and all the world was fair;
Call back the kiss which thrilled through all thy veins
In Love's young dream, of which no trace remains—
Call all things back, as shadowy as these,
But never seek to summon back lost opportunities.

goodly numbers and are enjoying the occasion ever changing, yet interesting and pleasing to the onlooker.

It is hoped nothing will occur to mar the de-credit upon all concerned.

They are here from all directions and the crowd will be further increased today by dele-

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Annual Sessions Being Held at the High School Building

The opening devotional exercises of the second day of Mason County Teachers' Institute were conducted by Rev. Roger L. Clark of the Christian Church.

Song, "Will Jesus Find Us Watching?" In a twenty minutes talk Prof. Ireland treated the subject of "The Value of Music" in a very interesting and edifying manner.

In the absence of Prof. Wiggington Prof. Burton discussed "The Teacher's Calling" with his usual skill and results.

Prof. H. C. Barnes, at first in a rather witty way, and later in a more serious way, told the Institute "How to Start a Teacher."

Intermission. As Superintendent Wells found it necessary to be at the Colored Teachers' Institute, W. T. Berry presided over the meeting until the noon intermission.

The very close attention given to Prof. Bert Politt while he discussed "The First Day of School" showed that the hearers were in perfect sympathy with the words of the speaker.

Prof. Burton's treatment of "History" was well received by the Institute.

Mrs. Bettle Carr and Mr. Roberts made short talks on primary reading.

Institute convened again at 1:15 and sang, "Tolling On," after which Professor Bradner gave a very interesting account of the visit of himself and his teachers to the Schools of Indianapolis, Ind., together with their impression of same.

Prof. C. E. Turnipseed told the teachers what he thought about the use of the Dictionary and when and how it should be used.

The Mason County Teachers' Association was organized by re-electing the old officers for the present year—

President—W. P. King.

Vice-President—W. T. Berry.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Allison.

Adjourned to meet at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

Prof. George Smith of Eastern Kentucky Normal School at Richmond, Ky., will deliver an illustrated lecture on Nature Study in the Auditorium of the High School Building at 7:30 o'clock tonight, Wednesday, August 25th. Admission free.

The feature of the day was Professor Burton's exposition of his theory and ideas of the purpose, place and use of the story in the educational scheme, together with a practical exemplification of same in the telling to the Institute a number and variety of stories illustrative of his remarks, which were enthusiastically received by the Institute.

The following additional teachers were enrolled:

Mrs. Alice Martin, Springdale.
Mamie Yancey, Mayslick.
C. E. Turnipseed, Rectorville.
Ben Kidwell, Route 2.
Artie Henson, Washington.

COLORED INSTITUTE.

The Colored Teachers' Institute began its second day's work in the Courthouse at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. After singing "The Watch on the Rhine," the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. C. Mitchell, D.D., who read the fifth chapter of Mathew, and after a few appropriate remarks on the same led in prayer.

After singing "Nearer My God to Thee," the instructor, Prof. F. L. Williams, had the Institute to give a comprehensive review of the previous day's work.

The six great aims of the school were then taken up and thoroughly discussed by the instructor. Prof. Williams said, in the course of his remarks upon these topics, that the "Bread and Butter" aim should make one self-supporting; that it should give one pride and dignity in honest labor; in short, it was closely allied to industrial education; that knowledge should show itself in effective action. It should function in the experience of the individual; that culture comes from the appreciation of the beautiful in nature, art, poetry, literature, etc. He defined the moral aim as meaning the justness, fairness and the rightness of things possessing a sense of honor, moral stamina and decisive character. He said that social efficiency should prepare one to take care of himself, to make his own way in the world, to pull his own weight. Secondly, that it would not permit an individual to hinder his fellowman, but it would implant in him a desire to join his fellowmen in doing everything that would redound to the welfare of the race.

After making clear the three great methods of teaching, the lecture, text-book and the developing, and after having the Institute to give concrete illustrations of the same, the rest of the day was taken up, both by instructor and teachers, in a partial consideration of the three great topics of instruction, viz., individual notions, general notions and the application of general notions.

The above program was interspersed with a sweet solo by Mrs. Taylor and with instructive remarks by distinguished visitors.

OLD
HOTEL DAYS

The Ledger: No, I wasn't there when Columbus came over, but have been here and there, since, some. There wasn't anything really to me in his trip—nothing to compare with an auto spin of today with its possibilities. And then I wasn't invited.

Things great and small have happened since Christopher's time, of which there's no record—of which the memory of living man alone is in evidence. For instance—

The Courier-Journal of recent date, under head of "Old Time Chicago Hotel Celebrities," has it about thus: "A fifteen or eighteen story hotel, if suggested thirty-five years ago, in the time of John B. Drake and Colonel Sam Parker, would have been thought an impossibility, &c. And then followed a long list of guests, world-wide celebrities of the period.

'Twas when Colonel Frank Cockrell of honored memory was holding wide the portals of the old "Broadway" in Cincinnati that John B. Drake—alike honored—was rivaling in hospitality at the "Pearl Street," both known as the best by every appreciative Kentuckian of the day. I was a kidding guest at the "Pearl Street" upon an occasion—the occasion changing to be the retiring of Mr. Drake therefrom and his acceptance of a like position at the new "Burnet." Each incident was a function—a banquet.

From about this, if I'm correct, began the association of John B. Drake and Samuel Turner of hotel renown.

And the Colonel Sam Parker of The Courier-Journal's notice was Sam Turner, son of Joel Turner of Turner's Mill, near Mt. Carmel.

I knew him as a lad. And he grew to be the man God designed him. And Mt. Carmel should have credit of it. A. G. B.
Maysville, Ky., August 23d, 1909.

The congregation of the Christian Church at Shelbyville has extended a call to the Rev. Homer W. Carpenter of Lima, O., to become the Pastor. He is a native of Flemingsburg and a graduate of Transylvania University at Lexington.

CHILD LABOR LAW

The Child Labor Law of 1908 makes it unlawful for any child under 14 years of age to be employed in any factory, workshop, store, etc. It is also unlawful for any child between the ages of 14 and 16 to be employed in these places unless he has a Labor Certificate signed by the proper authority.

The penalty for violation of this Law is a fine of not more than $50 for the first offense and $5 a day for every day of employment after notification.

A new section of the law goes into effect the first of September, namely, that of the educational qualification, which did not apply for last year.

Those wishing to consult me about this matter may see me at my office at the High School Building any day at 3 o'clock except Friday of this week and Monday of next week.

J. W. BRADNER,
Superintendent of Schools.

How a Maysville Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured to stay cured.

Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Maysville people testify.
Here's one case of it:
M. C. Chisholm, 317 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"The cure which Doan's Kidney Pills effected in my case some years ago has been permanent, and the testimonial I gave in their favor still holds good. I was bothered a great deal by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, this being especially annoying at night, when I was obliged to arise several times. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and had only used them a short time when I noticed a marked improvement. They soon cured me, and I have learned of several instances where they have been used with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
